Reflections on Mark 8. 1

In the Gospel this morning, we are given a glimpse of Jesus' tender concern for the crowd.

Jesus sees the distance each of us have come and looks at us with compassion. Let us allow ourselves to be nourished as Jesus offers us insight.

The disciples looked and saw their lack; Jesus asked them to look again and see the possibilities. Let me look at my life with Jesus, allowing myself to see and appreciate anew.

- The Gradual "Where is bread?" (to the tune #568, Daily, daily)

1. Where is bread? We know their yearning;
 every day, we wish for more.
 God, in time, we're slowly learning:
 all we own can make us poor.
 Our possessions can possess us,
 leaving hunger deep inside.
 Christ our Bread, come now and bless us;
 at your feast, we're satisfied.

2. "Where is bread?" the call is rising;
 millions cry who must be fed.
 God, your answer seems surprising:
 "You, my Church, you give them bread."
 Bread to fill each hungry spirit,
 bread for hungry stomachs, too!
 Give us bread and help us share it.
 Richly blest, may we serve you.

REVD CAROLYN WINFREY GILLETTE.
