Jesus the Good Shepherd

A Gospel Reflection

As we begin to move on from the Easter narrative we have this wonderful image of Christ as the Good Shepherd.

Jesus demonstrates His love for His 'flock' by giving His life. 'Greater love hath no man....' He is always looking for bringing in other 'sheep' who recognize His call and is prepared to die so that the flock may remain secure. Our Lord compares this calling with the hired hand who is only into shepherding for the money and lacks loyalty, running away at the first sign of danger. Under the hired hand the flock is in jeopardy from wolves. Under the good shepherd, the sheep bask in the reflected love of their Creator, offered to them by the Son.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 23 • Dominus regit me

Refrain I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

The Lord is my shepherd; ♦
therefore can I lack nothing.
He makes me lie down in green pastures ♦
and leads me beside still waters.

I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

He shall refresh my soul ♦
and guide me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; ♦
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

You spread a table before me
in the presence of those who trouble me; ♦
you have anointed my head with oil
and my cup shall be full.
Surely goodness and loving mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life, ♦
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

O God, our sovereign and shepherd,
who brought again your Son Jesus Christ
from the valley of death,
comfort us with your protecting presence
and your angels of goodness and love,
that we also may come home
and dwell with him in your house for ever.

and nourish us all with your word.

be with us and all who follow you in the way.
Deepen our appreciation of your truth
and fill us with your life.

Jesus, Lord of life,

Jesus, Good Shepherd who gave your life for the sheep,
recover the straggler,

strengthen the sick
and lead the healthy and strong to new pastures.

Jesus, Lord of life,
in your mercy, hear us.

Jesus, the resurrection and the life,
we give you thanks for all who have lived and

Watching for you and for me.

You who are weary, come home;
Earnestly, tenderly, Jesus is calling,
Calling, O sinner, come home!

Pleading for you and for me?
Why should we linger and heed not His mercies,

Passing from you and from me;

This day marks the anniversary of the birth of the modern environmental movement in 1970. Pray for all who are making efforts to save the environment and tackle climate change.
