TEXT FOR THE DAY

In his distress he sought the favour of the Lord his God and humbled himself greatly before the God of his ancestors.

2 Chronicles 33:12

Have you heard about King Manasseh? He was one of the worst kings that ever ruled the people of Judah. The Lord sent prophets to warn Manasseh, but Manasseh did not listen. Not at all. He just kept doing more and more evil.

So the Lord sent the Assyrians to capture Manasseh. The Lord allowed the Assyrians to do this because He wanted to get Manasseh's attention.

Manasseh repented! He was sorry for his sins.

And the Lord, in grace and love, forgave Manasseh and brought him back to Jerusalem.

A wicked king is forgiven by His gracious Father. And God forgives you too. There is no sin that is so great that God will not forgive it. Ask God to forgive you and make you clean again. The Lord, in His covenant love, will certainly forgive you. He will continue to love you and hold on to you as His precious child.

Welcome to St Thomas' Cathedral for this service

We are the mother church of the Diocese of Bombay in the Church of North India, a member of the worldwide Anglican Communion. Christian worship has been offered to God here for over 300 years. By worshipping with us today, you become part of that living tradition.

The basis for our worship is the Book of Common Prayer, our common liturgical heritage with Anglicans across the world (all churches descended from the Church of England). We are rooted in tradition but celebrate the richness and diversity of the Communion. Music and hymnody represent the best of the Anglican choral tradition.

Follow the readings and the Order of Service for the Lord's Supper from The Book of Common Prayer (refer page numbers).

Baptism

The baptism of JAYDEN KNOX

Baptism is the gift of our Lord Jesus Christ. When he had risen from the dead, he commanded his followers to go and make disciples of all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. We have come together today to obey that command.

Baptism marks the beginning of a journey with God which continues for the rest of our lives, the first step in response to God's love. Baptism with water signifies the cleansing from sin that Jesus' death makes possible, and the new life that God gives us through the Holy Spirit. The wider community of the local church and friends welcome the new Christian, promising support and prayer for the future. Hearing and doing these things provides an opportunity to remember our own baptism and reflect on the progress made on that journey, which is now to be shared with this new member of the Church.

Children are baptised in response to God's all-embracing love. Parents and godparents who have responded to that love come now to bring this child for baptism.

So we welcome you, Jayden, with your godparents and family. We give thanks for you, and pray that you may know God's love and faithfulness for ever.

The Introduction

The parents, the godparents with the child to be baptized assemble at the chancel steps near the vessel containing the water for baptism.

The choir sings

Blessèd Jesu! here we stand,
Met to do as thou hast spoken:
And this child, at thy command,
Now we bring to thee, in token
That to Christ it here is given;
For of such shall be his heaven.

Words: B. Schmolck (1672 - 1737)

Tune: LIEBSTER JESU
Melody by J. R. Ahle (1625 - 73)

The priest says

Hear the gracious words of our Lord Jesus Christ which tell us of God's love and concern for children: "Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the Kingdom of God belongs." Mark. 10.14

If such is God's love for children, then we can with confidence pray, that He will grant them that gift which will enable them to grow up as His own sons and daughters.

We thank God for Jayden Knox who has come to be baptized today.
Christ loves him and welcomes him into his Church.

Let us pray.

O God our loving Father,
you desire that none of your children should perish,
and you have raised up your Church so that in its common life your children may receive spiritual nourishment and grow in your likeness.

We thank you for promising new life and fellowship with you to those who are born of water and the Holy Spirit.

We thank you for the sacrament of baptism which signifies that in union with Christ they die to sin and rise again to newness of life.

All say

O loving Father,
we bring this child to you,
who alone can renew and save
those who come to you in faith.
Receive him
and make him yours
for ever in the body of Christ;
renew and save him
and make him an instrument
of your redeeming love in the world.
We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Decision

Priest Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to do far more abundantly than all that we can ask or think, to Him be glory in the Church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Each parent and sponsor (or godparent) make the promises as follows:

Priest: Do you who have brought this child for baptism promise before God and in the presence of this congregation that you will yourself steadfastly affirm and uphold the faith of the Church?

Response Yes, I do.

Do you promise to help this child to believe and trust in God the Father almighty, who created heaven and earth?

Yes, I do.

Do you promise to help this child to believe and trust in Jesus Christ, the Son of God who for our salvation died on a cross, was raised from the dead, lives now in glory as the Saviour and Lord of all, and will come again to judge the living and the dead?

Yes, I do.

Do you promise to help this child to believe and trust in the Holy Spirit of God who renews, guides and strengthens the people of God?

Yes, I do.

Do you promise that

by your prayers for this child, by your own manner of life, and
by your guidance,

you will help him as he grows up

to pray and to worship God,
to study the Bible,
to follow the example and teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ, to share generously what he has with others and to take an active part in the Church's witness to Christ?

Yes, I do.

Do you also promise that you will help this child to grow in the knowledge and experience of Christ, that when he comes to the age of discretion, he will be led to make his personal and public profession of faith in Christ and be led into the communicant membership of the Church?

Yes, I do.

Let us pray in silence that the Holy Spirit may enable you to be faithful to your promises.

All keep a moments silence

Do you now wish this child to be baptized?

Yes, I do.

The Blessing of the Water

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We give you thanks that you have called Jayden to new birth in your Church through the waters of baptism. Pour out your Holy Spirit in blessing and † sanctify this water so that, being baptised in it, he may be made one with Christ in his death and resurrection. May he die to sin, rise to newness of life, and continue for ever in Jesus Christ our Lord, through whom we give you praise and honour, in the unity of the Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

The Baptism

The priest asks the parents (or the sponsors) to name the child.

The priest baptizes the child saying

Jayden Knox, I baptize you in the name of † God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The priest makes the sign of the cross on Jaden's forehead and says

Jayden, I sign you with the sign of the † cross to show that you are marked as Christ's own for ever.

Live as a disciple of Christ: fight the good fight, finish the race, keep the faith.

All respond

Confess Christ crucified, proclaim his resurrection,
look for his coming in glory.

All stand

Tune my heart to sing thy grace;
