Welcome to St Thomas' Cathedral for this service

We are the mother church of the Diocese of Bombay in the Church of North India, a member of the worldwide Anglican Communion. For over 300 years, the people of St. Thomas' Cathedral have sought to be a body through which the light of Christ is seen, his life is shared, and his work is done.

The basis for our worship is the Book of Common Prayer, our common liturgical heritage with Anglicans across the world (all churches descended from the Church of England). We are rooted in tradition but celebrate the richness and diversity of the Communion. Music and hymnody represent the best of the Anglican choral tradition.

Follow the readings and the Order of Service for the Lord's Supper from The Book of Common Prayer (refer page numbers).

The hymns can be found in The English Hymnal.

The choral setting for the Eucharist is by John Merbecke and Martin Shaw.

---

We kindly request that you do not take photographs, or video or sound recording in the cathedral at any time during services. You are welcome to take photographs at any other time.

The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ: Palm Sunday

Today's liturgy marks the beginning of Holy Week. In this Palm Sunday service we journey with Jesus as he is welcomed in triumph upon entering Jerusalem and then utterly rejected and crucified at Golgotha outside the gates of the city.

Today's reading of Christ's passion sets forth the central act of God's love for humankind. We are not just observers but are part of the passion of Christ and through it we come to know the reality of God's saving action in our lives. Holy Week will culminate in the celebration of the Triduum—the Sacred Three Days of Jesus' suffering, death, and resurrection.

The Gathering

Voluntary

Valet will ich dir geben
(‘Farewell, I gladly bid thee’), BWV 735

Johann Sebastian Bach, 1685 - 1750

Welcome

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, during Lent we have been preparing by works of love and self-sacrifice for the celebration of our Lord’s death and resurrection.

Today we come together to begin this solemn celebration in union with the Church throughout the world. Christ enters his own city to complete his work as our Saviour, to suffer, to die, and to rise again.

Let us go with him in faith and love, so that, united with him in his sufferings, we may share his risen life.

The congregation gathers in the porch. Carry this service booklet with you.

Commemoration of the Lord’s entry into Jerusalem

All repeat after the Cantor

Hosanna to the Son of David!
Blest is he who comes in the name of the Lord!
Hosanna in the highest!

Words: St. Matthew 21:9

Music: Alfred V. Fedak, b. 1953

Presbyter      Blessèd is the One who comes in the name of the Lord:

All              Peace in heaven and glory in the highest.

The Blessing of Palms

All hold up palms or branches while this prayer is said by the Presbyter

† Bless, we beseech Thee, O Lord, these branches, and crosses of palm;
and grant that, as Thy people do on this day
outwardly venerate Thee,
they may inwardly love Thee with such devotion that their love may be shown forth in good works;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with Thee and the Holy Spirit liveth and reigneth for ever.

Amen.

The Palm Gospel

Mark 11. 1 - 11

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

Glory to you, O Lord.

When Jesus and his disciples were approaching Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples and said to them, 'Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden; untie it and bring it. If anyone says to you, Why are you doing this? just say this, The Lord needs it and will send it back here immediately.' They went away and found a colt tied near a door, outside in the street. As they were untying it, some of the bystanders said to them, 'What are you doing, untying the colt?' They told them what Jesus had said; and they allowed them to take it. Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it; and he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields. Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting, 'Hosanna!

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!
Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David!
Hosanna in the highest heaven!

Then he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple; and when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Let us go forth praising Jesus our Messiah.

Hosanna in the highest.

All join in singing the hymn

Hymn at the Procession

All glory, laud, and honour,
To Thee, Redeemer, King,
To whom the lips of children
Made sweet hosannas ring.

<sup>2</sup> Thou art the King of Israel,
Thou David's royal Son,
Who in the Lord's name comest,
The King and Blessèd One.

<sup>3</sup> The company of Angels
Are praising Thee on high,
And mortal men and all things
Created make reply.

<sup>4</sup> The people of the Hebrews
With palms before Thee went;
Our praise and prayer and anthems
Before Thee we present.

<sup>5</sup> To Thee, before Thy passion,
They sang their hymns of praise;
To Thee, now high exalted,
Our melody we raise.

<sup>6</sup> Thou didst accept their praises;
Accept the prayers we bring,
Who in all good delightest,
Thou good and gracious King.

Words: Theodulph of Orleans (750 - 821);
trans. by John Mason Neale

Tune: ST THEODULPH

All take their places and join in singing

Give me joy in my heart, keep me praising,
Give me joy in my heart, I pray;
Give me joy in my heart, keep me praising,
Keep me praising till the break of day:

Refrain Sing hosanna, sing hosanna,
Sing hosanna to the King of kings.
Sing hosanna, sing hosanna,
Sing hosanna to the King.

<sup>2</sup> Give me peace in my heart, keep me loving,
Give me peace in my heart, I pray;
Give me peace in my heart, keep me loving,
Keep me loving till the break of day

<sup>3</sup> Give me love in my heart, keep me serving,
Give me love in my heart, I pray;
Give me love in my heart, keep me serving,

The Passion of our Lord

Narrator The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Mark.

And as soon as it was morning, the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council. They bound Jesus, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate. Pilate asked him,

Pilate ‘Are you the King of the Jews?’

Jesus ‘You say so.’

Narrator Then the chief priests accused him of many things. Pilate asked him again,

Pilate ‘Have you no answer?
See how many charges they bring against you.’

Narrator But Jesus made no further reply, so that Pilate was amazed. Now at the festival he used to release a prisoner for them, anyone for whom they asked. Now a man called Barabbas was in prison with the rebels who had committed murder during the insurrection. So the crowd came and began to ask Pilate to do for them according to his custom. Then he answered them,

Pilate ‘Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?’

Narrator For he realized that it was out of jealousy that the chief priests had handed him over. But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have him release Barabbas for them instead. Pilate spoke to them again,

Pilate ‘Then what do you wish me to do with the man you call the King of the Jews?’

Crowd (ALL) ‘Crucify him!’

Pilate ‘Why, what evil has he done?’

Crowd (ALL) ‘Crucify him!’

Continued

Narrator

So Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released Barabbas for them; and after flogging Jesus, he handed him over to be crucified. Then the soldiers led him into the courtyard of the palace (that is, the governor's headquarters); and they called together the whole cohort. And they clothed him in a purple cloak; and after twisting some thorns into a crown, they put it on him. And they began saluting him,

Crowd (ALL)

'Hail, King of the Jews!'

Narrator

They struck his head with a reed, spat upon him, and knelt down in homage to him. After mocking him, they stripped him of the purple cloak and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him out to crucify him.

They compelled a passer-by, who was coming in from the country, to carry his cross; it was Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus. Then they brought Jesus to the place called Golgotha (which means the place of a skull). And they offered him wine mixed with myrrh; but he did not take it. And they crucified him, and divided his clothes among them, casting lots to decide what each should take.

It was nine o'clock in the morning when they crucified him. The inscription of the charge against him read, 'The King of the Jews.' And with him they crucified two bandits, one on his right and one on his left. Those who passed by derided him, shaking their heads and saying,

Crowd (ALL)

'Aha! You who would destroy the temple and build it in three days, save yourself, and come down from the cross!'

Narrator

In the same way the chief priests, along with the scribes, were also mocking him among themselves and saying,

Crowd (ALL)

'He saved others; he cannot save himself. Let the Messiah, the King of Israel, come down from the cross now, so that we may see and believe.'

Narrator Those who were crucified with him also taunted him.
 When it was noon, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon. At three o'clock Jesus cried out with a loud voice,

Jesus 'Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?'

Narrator which means, 'My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?' When some of the bystanders heard it, they said,

Crowd (ALL) 'Listen, he is calling for Elijah.'

Narrator And someone ran, filled a sponge with sour wine, put it on a stick, and gave it to him to drink, saying,

Bystander 'Wait, let us see whether Elijah will come to take him down.'

Narrator Then Jesus gave a loud cry and breathed his last. And the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. Now when the centurion, who stood facing him, saw that in this way he breathed his last, he said,

Centurion 'Truly this man was God's Son!'

A moment of silence is kept

All sing Majesty, worship His Majesty; unto Jesus be glory, honour, and praise.
 Majesty, kingdom authority, flows from His throne unto His own, His anthem raise.
 So exalt, lift up on high the name of Jesus,
 magnify, come glorify, Christ Jesus, the King.
 Majesty, worship His Majesty,
 Jesus who died, now glorified, King of all kings.

Hymn

Sung by the choir

My song is love unknown,
my Saviour's love for me,
love to the loveless shown,
that they might lovely be.
O who am I,
that for my sake
my Lord should take frail flesh and die?

Sometimes they strew his way,
and His sweet praises sing;
resounding all the day
hosannas to their King.
Then 'Crucify!'
is all their breath,
and for his death
they thirst and cry.

Here might I stay and sing:
no story so divine!
never was love, dear King,
never was grief like Thine.
This is my Friend,
in whose sweet praise
I all my days
could gladly spend.

Words: Samuel Crossman, 1624 - 83

Music: John Ireland, 1879 - 1962

Litany for Holy Week

Intercessor

We stand with Christ in his suffering.

For forgiveness for the many times we have denied Jesus,
let us pray to the Lord.

All

Lord, have mercy.

For grace to seek out those habits of sin which mean spiritual death,
and by prayer and self-discipline to overcome them,
let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For Christian people,
that through the suffering of disunity
there may grow a rich union in Christ,
let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For those who make laws, interpret them,
and administer them,
that our common life may be ordered
in justice and mercy,
let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For those who still make Jerusalem a battleground,
let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For those who have the courage and honesty to work
openly for justice and peace,
Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For those in the darkness and agony of isolation,
that they may find support and encouragement,
let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For those who, weighed down with hardship, failure, or sorrow, feel that God is far from them,
let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For those who are tempted to give up the way of the cross, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

Intercessor

That we, with those who have died in faith,
may find mercy in the day of Christ,
let us pray to the Lord.

During the administration of Communion, the choir sings

Were you there when they crucified my Lord?
Were you there when they crucified my Lord?
Oh, sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.
Were you there when they crucified my Lord?

Were you there when they nailed him to the tree?
Were you there when they nailed him to the tree?
Oh, sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.
Were you there when they nailed him to the tree?

Amazing Grace how sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found;
Was blind, but now I see.

Were you there when they laid him in the tomb?
Were you there when they laid him in the tomb?
Oh, sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.
Were you there when they laid him in the tomb?

Palm Sunday

A poem by Malcolm Guite b. 1957

Now to the gate of my Jerusalem,
The seething holy city of my heart,
The saviour comes. But will I welcome him?
Oh crowds of easy feelings make a start;
They raise their hands, get caught up in the singing,
And think the battle won. Too soon they'll find
The challenge, the reversal he is bringing Changes their tune. I know what lies behind
The surface flourish that so quickly fades;
Self-interest, and fearful guardedness,
The hardness of the heart, its barricades,
And at the core, the dreadful emptiness
Of a perverted temple. Jesus come
Break my resistance and make me your home.

Pray with us

† THE WORLD This week we pray for peace in the region in which Jesus lived. Lord God, you sent your Son to live in this part of the world, to walk the deserts, drink from the oases, and fish from the lakes. We commend these lands to you now – Egypt, Israel, Lebanon, Syria, Palestine and Jordan. We pray for a lasting peace where man and woman can live side by side with respect for each other made in your image. We pray with the prophet Isaiah that these lands would be where swords are turned into ploughshares and spears into pruning hooks and nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore.

† OUR COUNTRY Our continued prayers for a return to normalcy in the state of Manipur.

† THE WORLDWIDE CHURCH For the Church universal as the faithful prepare for their journey to Calvary during Holy Week • In the Anglican Communion for The Church of England. Pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit in the appointment of the next Archbishop of Canterbury.

† THE DIOCESE OF BOMBAY With the recent announcement of the translation of Bishop Manoj Charan to take charge as the Bishop Amritsar; pray in earnest for our Diocese. Bishop Manoj will now be the Moderator's Episcopal Commissary for Bombay till the time of the appointment of a new bishop. This week for St. Peter's Church (Tamil Pastorate), Kalyan and the Reverend John Thavakumar.

† OUR CATHEDRAL For all church services during Holy Week • All senior citizens and those who are unwell. Pray for their care providers. This week for the church staff and support staff: Johnson and Ramesh our sextons, the security guards, janitor, gardener, dhobhi and photocopier.
