Welcome to St Thomas' Cathedral for this service

We are the mother church of the Diocese of Bombay in the Church of North India, a member of the worldwide Anglican Communion. Christian worship has been offered to God here for over 300 years. By worshipping with us today, you become part of that living tradition.

The basis for our worship is the Book of Common Prayer, our common liturgical heritage with Anglicans across the world (all churches descended from the Church of England). We are rooted in tradition but celebrate the richness and diversity of the Communion. Music and hymnody represent the best of the Anglican choral tradition.

Follow the readings and the Order of Service for the Lord's Supper from The Book of Common Prayer (refer page numbers).

We kindly request that you do not take photographs, or video or sound recording in the cathedral at any time during services. You are welcome to take photographs at any other time.

THE RESURRECTION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST

On this radiant morning, we join the chorus echoing through the ages and across continents: Christ is risen! Alleluia! We extend a warm welcome to each one of you as you join in worship with us here in the Cathedral on Resurrection Sunday.

Today we celebrate the heart of the Christian faith—that love is stronger than death, and that nothing in all creation can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus. Easter is not just the story of one man’s triumph over the grave; it is the declaration that life wins, hope endures, and love has the final say. The tomb is empty, and the world is forever changed.

But Easter isn’t only about what happened to Jesus two thousand years ago. It’s also about what is happening to us—right now. The risen Christ is still at work in our lives and in our world, rolling away the stones that keep us trapped in fear, shame, despair, addiction, and grief. Easter comes to remind us that no night lasts forever, no story is beyond redemption, and no person is beyond the reach of grace.

As you join in worship on this joyful morning, know this: the joy of Easter is for you. Not because you’ve earned it, but because God delights in you. You are beloved. You are called by name. And the same power that raised Jesus from the dead is at work in your life, offering you new beginnings and boundless hope.

Let us in heart, mind and voice make this sacred place resound with our joyous acclamation:

Christ is risen!
He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Low in the grave He lay, Jesus my Saviour, waiting the coming day, Jesus my Lord!

Up from the grave He arose;
with a mighty triumph o'er His foes;
He arose a victor from the dark domain,
and He lives forever, with His saints to reign.
He arose! He arose! Hallelujah! Christ arose!

Death cannot keep its prey, Jesus my Saviour;
He tore the bars away, Jesus my Lord!

Robert Lowry, 1826 - 1899

I know that He is living, whatever men may say.
I see His hand of mercy, I hear His voice of cheer,
And just the time I need Him He's always near.

Continued

He lives! He lives!
Christ Jesus lives today!
He walks with me, and talks with me
Along life's narrow way.
He lives! He lives, salvation to impart!
You ask me how I know He lives:
He lives within my heart!

Introit

Sung by the choir

Alive! alive! Jesus is a alive!
No greater affirmation could a mortal tongue impart;
Alive! alive! Jesus is a alive!
Triumphant over sin and death,
He lives within my heart!

The Lamb of God was crucified,
His work on earth was o'er,
They laid Him in a stone-cold tomb where none had lain before;
A seal was set while soldiers kept their watch by night and day,
An angel of the Lord came down and rolled the stone away!

The Presbter introduces the blessing of Easter Garden.

A reader says

The angel said to the women, 'Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has been raised as he said.

The Presbyter says

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation,
the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

To you be glory now and for ever.

In your great mercy you have given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

By your blessing, may we who have prepared this garden in celebration of his victory be strengthened in faith, know the power of his presence, and rejoice in the hope of eternal glory.

Blessed be God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

All Blessed be God for ever.

Act of Penitence

The Presbyter prays over a vessel of water

God our Father, your gift of water brings life and freshness to the earth;
in baptism it is a sign of the washing away of our sins and the gift of life eternal.

Sanctify this water, we pray. Renew the living spring of your life within us, that we may be free from sin and filled with your saving health; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

The organ sounds a fanfare

That we may see aright
The Lord in rays eternal

The Easter Anthem

Sung by the choir to a chant by G. Thalben-Ball

- ¹ Christ our passover has been sacrificed for us :
so let us celebrate the feast;
- ² not with the old leaven of corruption and wickedness :
but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.
- ³ Christ once raised from the dead dies no more :
death has no more dominion over him.
- ⁴ In dying he died to sin once for all.:
In living he lives to God.
- ⁵ See yourselves therefore as dead to sin :
and alive to God in Jesus Christ our Lord.
- ⁶ Christ has been raised from the dead :
the firstfruits of those who sleep.
- ⁷ For as by man came death :
by man has come also the resurrection of the dead;
- ⁸ for as in Adam all die :
even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

All stand for the Gloria Patri

The Anthem

“Lord of the Dance”

I danced in the morning
when the world was begun,
And I danced in the moon
And the stars and the sun,
And I came down from heaven
and I danced on the earth,
At Bethlehem

*Dance, then, wherever you may be,
I am the Lord of the Dance, said he,
And I'll lead you all, wherever you may be,
And I'll lead you all in the Dance, said he.*

I danced for the scribe
And the pharisee,
But they would not dance
And they wouldn't follow me.
I danced for the fishermen,
For James and John –
They came with me
And the Dance went on.

I danced on the Sabbath
And I cured the lame;
The holy people
said it was a shame.
They whipped and they stripped
and they hung me high,
And they left me there on a Cross to die.

I danced on a Friday
when the sky turned black – It's hard to dance
with the devil on your back.
They buried my body
and they thought I'd gone,
But I am the Dance,
and I still go on.

They cut me down
and I leapt up high;
I am the life
that'll never, never die;
I'll live in you
If you'll live in me –
I am the Lord of the Dance, said he.
